

CZ VETERINARIA

PRESS RELEASE

CZ VETERINARIA RECEIVES A CENTRALIZED MARKETING AUTHORIZATION FOR BLUEVAC BTV8 VACCINE.

Porriño, Pontevedra – April 26th, 2011 – CZ VETERINARIA announced today that the European Commission (EC) has granted a Marketing Authorisation for the vaccine against bluetongue disease BLUEVAC BTV8 (EU/2/11/122/001-003).

BLUEVAC BTV8 is an inactivated vaccine against the serotype 8 of Bluetongue virus for cattle and sheep.

BLUEVAC BTV8 is available for all European Union markets, including Spain, in packages of 52, 100 and 252 ml. Sheep dose: 2ml. Cattle dose: 4 ml.

About CZ VETERINARIA

CZ Veterinaria, SA (CZV) is a leading biotechnology company manufacturer of vaccines and immunological products for veterinary use which are used in over 65 countries like Brazil, Canada, Saudi Arabia and Australia.

CZV also manufactures veterinary products for other companies (Contract Manufacturing) and Government organizations.

The manufacturing plants, biotech labs, offices and warehouses are located in Spain in a construction area of 10,100 m² on a total area of 43,000 m².

Since 2007, CZV has sold over 140 million doses of vaccine against different serotypes of bluetongue virus in countries like Germany, France, Portugal and Spain.

www.czveterinaria.com

For additional information,
Corporate Communications: b.diaz@czveterinaria.com